

Market and Economic Highlights

- ▶ U.S. equities lower in April following substantial gains in Q1
- ▶ Big tech stock prices were mostly lower for the month
- ▶ A more hawkish Fed helped moved stock and bond prices lower
- ▶ Inflation data remained sticky possibly keeping the Fed higher for longer
- ▶ Corporate earnings for Q1 have thus far been mostly stronger than expected

FEATURED MARKET DATA

A Mixed Bag of Data

Inflation, employment and GDP growth data received in April all contributed to declines in stock and bond prices. During April, Fed speak focused on patience with respect to a potential rate cut. In his press conference following the May 1, 2024, FOMC meeting, Federal Reserve Chairman Powell noted a “lack of further progress” regarding inflation data, while reiterating that policy remains sufficiently restrictive. A higher for longer narrative returned when March CPI came in higher than expected for the third consecutive month. Regarding economic growth, March nonfarm payrolls were higher than consensus, potentially contributing to inflation. 1st quarter GDP, meanwhile, was below expectations. Softer GDP growth renewed attention to the possibility of a bumpy landing. Stronger than expected Q1 earnings remain a bright spot for markets.
